

I have played softball since I was 8 years old. I have been through ups and downs throughout my years of playing this sport, but am proud for being able to continue playing throughout high school. I am currently a softball player on two teams: El Capitan High School Softball and Valley Sports Academy Travel Softball. I continue to improve while on these teams and have made incredible memories while building friendships with my teammates.

